One-Day Workshop on

Performance of Bihu and Folk Instruments

A One-Day Workshop on Performance of Bihu and Folk Instruments has been organised by the Departments of English, Assamese, Arabic, and Sanskrit, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Manikpur Anchalik College, Manikpur, on 18/03/2026 at 12:00 noon.

Objectives:

1. To promote awareness and appreciation of Bihu and traditional folk instruments as integral components of Assamese cultural heritage.
2. To provide practical exposure and performance-based learning by familiarising participants with the techniques, rhythms, and styles of Bihu dance.
3. To encourage preservation and transmission of indigenous art forms among students through interactive sessions.

Report of the Programme

The day-long workshop has been anchored by Deva Kumar Das, HoD, Department of English. The programme has commenced with an inaugural address delivered by the Hon'ble Principal of Manikpur Anchalik College, Dr. Rabinjyoti Khataniar, who has highlighted the cultural significance of Bihu and the need to arrange such workshops.

This was followed by an engaging and insightful session conducted by the Resource Person, Jagriti Kalita, a renowned specialist in Bihu dance and folk instruments. She has elaborated on the nuances, techniques, and aesthetic aspects of Bihu performance, along with a discussion of the associated folk instruments. The session has been highly interactive, and participants has been benefited from hands-on training and practical demonstrations.

The workshop has been concluded on a successful note with a formal Vote of Thanks proposed by Bahadur Ali Ahmed, HoD, Department of Arabic, who has expressed gratitude to the resource person, the respected Principal, teaches, employees and participants for making the programme meaningful and impactful.

Outcomes of the Programme:

1. Enhanced Cultural Awareness and Appreciation

Participants developed a deeper understanding of Bihu as a vital component of Assamese cultural heritage, along with increased appreciation for traditional folk instruments and their role in community life.

2. Skill Development through Practical Exposure

Students gained hands-on experience in Bihu dance techniques, rhythms, and the use of folk instruments, improving their performance skills and confidence through direct interaction with the resource person.

3. Encouragement for Preservation of Indigenous Traditions

The workshop fostered a sense of responsibility among participants to preserve and promote indigenous art forms, motivating them to carry forward these traditions through learning, practice, and cultural participation.
