Report on Seminar Attended

Title: Seminar on "Assamese Travelogue: Literary Value"

Date: 21st February, 2026

Venue: B.H. College, Howly

A seminar on the topic "Assamese Travelogue: Literary Value" was successfully held on 21st February, 2026 at B.H. College, Howly. The event aimed to highlight the importance, evolution and literary richness of travel writing in Assamese literature.

The seminar was attended by students, faculty members and invited scholars who shared their valuable insights on the subject. The program began with an inaugural session where the principal of the college Dr. Bhushan Ch. Pathak welcomed the guests and emphasized the significance of literary studies in understanding culture and society.

The speakers also highlighted how travelogues serve as important literary documents that preserve historical, social and cultural aspects of different places. Interactive sessions allowed participants to engage in discussions, ask questions and express their views.

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the organizers, speakers and participants for making the event meaningful and informative.

Overall, the seminar was highly enriching and provided deep insights into the literary value of Assamese travelogues, inspiring students to explore this genre further.
