Subject: Prayer for Permission to Organise a Door-to-Door Anti-Dowry Awareness Campaign a Barbila Village.

Respected Sir,

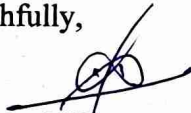

With due respect, we would like to inform you that the NSS Unit and the Departments of Economics, Arabic & Political Science, in collaboration with IQAC, propose to organise a "Door-to-Door Anti-Dowry Awareness Campaign" on 22nd May 2026 as an extension activity of the college.

The main objective of the programme is to create awareness among the local community regarding the harmful effects of the dowry system and legal awareness related to dowry prohibition and domestic violence.

Therefore, we kindly request you to grant us permission to organise the programme and allow the participation of students and teachers in the campaign. We also seek your valuable support and cooperation for the successful conduct of the programme.

We shall remain grateful for your kind approval.

Yours faithfully,

Program Officer,

Report on Door-to-Door Anti-Dowry Awareness Campaign

Manikpur Anchalik College NSS Unit, Department of Arabic, Economics and Political science of Manikpur Anchalik College, Manikpur, in collaboration with IQAC, organized a Door-to-Door Anti-Dowry Awareness Campaign on 30th May 2026 at Borbila, Bongaigaon, Assam.

The programme aimed to create awareness among the local community about the harmful effects of the dowry system and to promote gender equality and respect for women's rights. NSS volunteers, students and faculty members actively participated in the campaign. The participants carried banners and placards displaying anti-dowry messages and interacted directly with villagers, encouraging them to reject dowry practices and support dowry-free marriages.

During the campaign, volunteers highlighted the legal consequences of demanding or accepting dowry and emphasized the importance of building a society based on mutual respect and equality. The awareness drive received a positive response from the community, with many residents expressing their support for the initiative.

The programme concluded with a pledge by participants to work towards eliminating the dowry system and spreading awareness about the social and legal issues associated with it. The campaign successfully conveyed the message that dowry is a social evil and that collective efforts are essential to eradicate this practice from society.
