Report on World Environment Day Observation 2026

Venue: Manikpur bazaar (Borbila)

Date: 5 June 2026

Organized by: NSS Unit, Manikpur Anchalik College in collaboration with IQAC Manikpur Anchalik College

On the occasion of World Environment Day 2026, the NSS Unit of Manikpur Anchalik College, in collaboration with IQAC, organized an awareness programme on the importance of the 3Rs – Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle. Students, teachers, NSS volunteers, and members of the local community actively participated in the programme.

The event commenced with a brief introduction highlighting the significance of environmental protection and sustainable living.. The programme was marked by a vibrant atmosphere, active participation, and a deep sense of environmental responsibility.

During the programme, NSS Programme Officer Mr. Abdul Latif delivered an inspiring and informative, lecture on environmental conservation. In his address, he talked about the urgent need to protect natural resources and encouraged everyone to adopt eco-friendly habits in their daily lives. He explained the concept of the 3Rs of Waste Management—Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle—and highlighted their crucial role in minimizing waste and preserving the environment.

. His speech inspired the participants to plant more trees, reduce plastic consumption, maintain cleanliness, and promote sustainable practices. The lecture was highly engaging, educational, and impactful, leaving a lasting impression on the audience.

The programme concluded with a collective pledge to protect nature and contribute towards a sustainable future. The event was a grand success and effectively raised awareness about environmental issues among the participants.
